

Celebrate EARTH DAY!

April 1, 2025

Dear Neighbor and Friend of our planet Earth,

WELCOME! To this Green Energy & Climate Change resource-The Green Bulletin Board.

On this 1st day of April, during the time of year EARTH DAY is celebrated the world over, we are proudly announcing the Inauguration of our GREEN OPEN OFFICE HOURS here, at the historic Fowler Clark Epstein Farm in Boston's Mattapan neighborhood.

It's a FREE public service being provided to assist you- residents, homeowners, seniors, working people, entrepreneurs and business persons and professionals alike- about receiving valuable information, applying for and potentially gaining access to thousands in Federal, Massachusetts and Local Green Energy funding and benefits

Learn more about Climate Change and its benefits to you and your family, friends and neighbors by scrolling thru The Green Bulletin Board website Home-Page or contacting us...SEE: Go Electric! (Now)

We hope to see you soon and help you receive funding and free professional assistance.

And please remember to observe the Tuesday, April 22nd Earth Day Celebration! It's the only planet we've got, so...

Make Every Day EARTH DAY!
